

SUHANI

Wearing a saree is a form of self-expression. There are hints about who you are in what you wear. A purely white saree is an epitome of tranquility that at once puts all the doubts to rest. After all, it's the undoubted queen of all the colors. We had chosen to wear a dressing up saree in being the statement piece with its elegance and grace and beauty.

